Lamb's Tail

1958

Anne,
I will never forget the many adventures we have had together. We've had a lot of fun. Next year maybe we'll
"grow up" a bit. See you this summer
Annekay.

Anne Williams

Dear Anne,
It has been such fun this year. Remember the
"Toctuees' Annakay
I described about
the Freshman-Sophomore party. Luck always.

THE ST. AGNES SEAL

Created originally by the grandmother of a St. Agnes girl, the St. Agnes School Seal is divided roughly into three parts. The upper portion contains a Latin Cross, the kind on which Christ was crucified. Around the empty cross are four clouds.

In the center of the Seal are three fish; three being the number of the Trinity, and the fish being the symbol used by the early Christians. The fish was chosen as the symbol for the Greek words "Jesus Christ, Son of God, Savior." In further carrying out this symbolism, it may be noted that the Seal itself is shaped like a fish without head or tail.

At the bottom of the Seal, peacefully lying down on green grass, rests a lamb, representing the Lamb of God. Three clouds are in the background, again suggestive of the Holy Trinity.

Around the edges of the Seal are four Cross Patei, variations of the Greek Cross. The words, St. Agnes School, Alexandria, Virginia are inscribed in the upper portion of the Seal. The lower portion contains two vines, with a total of twelve leaves, one for each apostle.

Overture

This year's Lamb's Tail staff chose music as its theme, because music is so much a part of our daily lives. Like a musician studying his art, we began to learn the rhythm of life in the first grade. Each year we understood more and more of the tempo. We learned to work and play with music, thus creating a pattern of knowledge. The rhythm of our daily lives has modeled us into what we are today, as we stand on the threshold of life. We feel that the moderate tempo of St. Agnes has prepared us well for the violent and ever-changing beat of our future in the confusing world of today.

Miss Mildred Cline

Douglas

When we say goodbye to St. Agnes we will not say goodbye to our Bible teacher, who has given us so many beautiful thoughts, helping us to tread the rough road of life and to choose with wisdom the way of opportunity for helping others.

"Hail St. Agnes" . . .

I

Hail! St. Agnes, we will ever
Loyal be in our endeavor
To deserve her name, and never
Let her standard fall.
On the hilltop she is standing,
All the countryside commanding,
Hearts and hands together banding
Steadfast one and all.

II

Onward, upward, never failing,
All unworthy thoughts assailing,
Right and Justice e'er prevailing,
Truth will be our guide.
Raise the chorus, keep it ringing,
Praises to our school we're bringing
All as one together singing,
"Forward, side by side!"

III

Let us whom she doth inspire
Raise her banner ever higher,
Sing her praise, nor ever tire,
"Victory for our school!"
Fleeting years that slip behind us
Staunch and faithful e'er will find us
Fast our memories will bind us
Closer to our school.

Chorus

GREEN and GOLD are blending,
Her fair name defending
Lift the cry,
"Our school for aye!
Her fame shall ever be unending!"
Loud we swell the happy chorus,
Naught but good shall be before us
With St. Agnes' banner o'er us
We will conquer still.

Before—After

Surprised, Eleanor?

The court proudly displays the birthday cake before it was devoured!

Sue Peery, Barbara Long, Eleanor Backus, Karen Zimmerman, Marilie Fifer.

St. Agnes Court

After much eager anticipation, Saint Agnes Day finally arrived . . . Presentation speeches and gifts prepared at last . . . Barbara, Marilie, Sue, and Karen, the court, led the procession into dimly lighted Daniel Hall . . . Then Eleanor, Saint Agnes, followed in the traditional blue robe . . . Miss McBride's address, explaining the meaning of St. Agnes to the guests . . . Gifts for the school from every organization, presented to the court with carefully written poems . . . Telegrams from alumnae congratulating Saint Agnes and her court . . . Eleanor's address, in which she expressed her deep feeling of love and gratitude toward Saint Agnes . . . The procession out to the school song . . . Ice cream and cake served for juniors, seniors, and guests in the library . . . In a moving ceremony to honor five of our outstanding girls and our patron saint on her birthday.

"It isn't that bad, is it, Carol?"

Pat tries hopelessly to call roll.

Friday, 4:20 at last.

Senior

Mrs. Van Sant and Eleanor brought us through the rocky road to being seniors . . . Motto for the year—togetherness . . . First part of year spent anxiously anticipating senior privileges . . . Finally the day arrived and one more was added—privilege of leaving school after our last class if we had an 85 average . . . Overhead—"Just wait until next quarter" . . . Some of us added Chemistry to our schedules . . . Last few minutes of lunch period spent cramming for a fine arts "exercise" . . . Cokes and coffee for lunch . . . As for our social life—nothing could be better or could it? . . . Many spent weekends at colleges to which they were applying—for an interview, of course! . . . A year looked upon with many happy memories.

Diane and Suzi wonder whether or not Sally stacked the deck.

Mary proves to Pat who has the larger mouth.

Mary-Pat and Molly try to guess the "young" seniors.

A group of Seniors enjoy themselves at a party given before the Holiday Dance.

Debbie, Terry, and Pud caught unaware.

"Did you say smile?"

Frolics

St. Agnes seniors are seen almost everywhere, n'est-ce pas? . . . From dances to reading clinics . . . "Blue" days or "bright" days are easily recognized during a free period . . . Never-to-be-forgotten jokes at lunch tables—"What are the last three hairs on a dog's tail called?"—"Dog hairs, stupid!" . . . Avid supporters of St. Stephen's basketball games . . . Last minute studying at Madeira for S.A.T.'s . . . Our favorite pastimes—bridge and talk of diets . . . The weekends bring parties, the Library of Congress, and more studying for those intellectually inclined . . . Popular sport—ice skating at E.H.S. . . . We swear it's the only attraction . . . My, but aren't we busy ones?

"Les Rockettes"

"Could you do that French last night?"

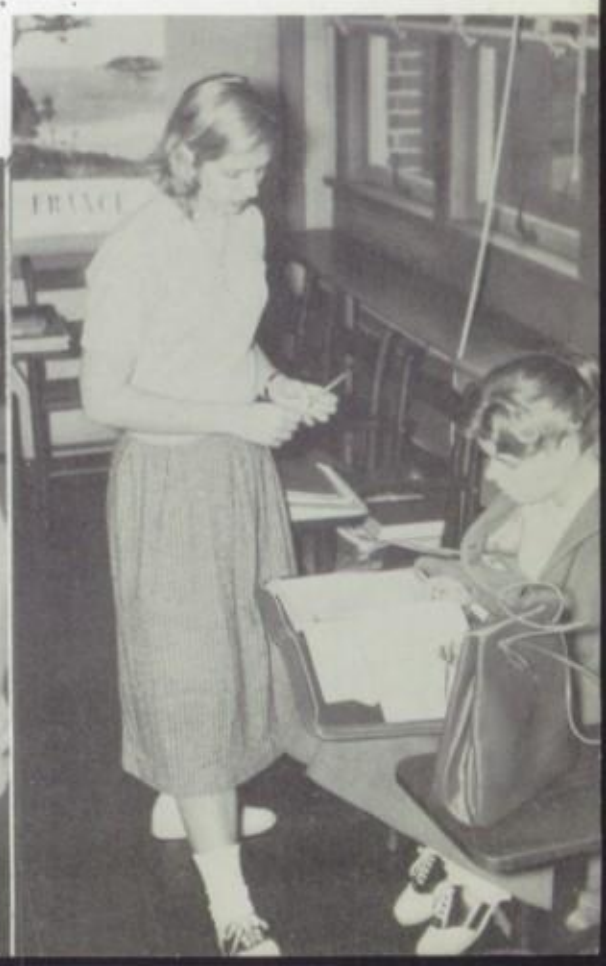
Seniors, frequently and rather faithfully, attended the R.C. trying to pass college boards.

Rock around the lunch line with Sally, Suzi and Mrs. Miller.



Mary-Pat wears that far away look displayed by many St. Agnes girls these days.

Jr.-Sr. Party

An anti-climax to hockey day . . . Greens and golds mix 'n mingle to show that all is well . . . Friendly groups of chatter . . . More food than we could handle—what a switch! . . . Some had the energy to dance but most of us tried to recuperate from the hard day . . . Highlight—the Seniors' song to the Juniors.

Watch out, girls, he bites!

Oh, the price of glory!

Dear Anne, We'll miss you a great deal next year. Keep up the good work in school and in sports. Have a great summer. Love, Suzie

Alert Junior class officers—Betsy Davis, treasurer; Gig Runner, secretary; Bev Edwards, president; and Judy May, vice-president—look ready for business.

Slim Juniors enjoy cokes at snack time.

With a happy grin, Miss Ross is presented a Christmas poinsettia by Bev.

Juniors

Dear Anne —
You're a real sweet cute girl and really took some wonderful prizes yesterday. Love, Judy

Miss Ross and her "Stay Ins"—"But I wasn't talking!" . . . Lots of Juniors on Hockey Squad . . . Green captain and co-captain only little ol' Juniors . . . Riotous party given for us by the Seniors after Hockey Day . . . Bev Edwards: "Oh, Double Fizz!" . . . Biology student: "Did you know that a carrot is a biennial?" Alice Schmidt: "Well, all of us have our shortcoming, don't we?" . . . The privileged ones—"We get new desks!" . . . Hear lots of talks by college representatives . . . "Girls, you must keep our shelves clean!" . . . Always have hymnals in chapel. Wonder why, Girls? . . . "What size is your ring going to be? . . . Faithful rooters at St. Stephen's football games . . . "We're upperclassmen, now!" . . . "I just don't understand 'Thanatopsis'!" . . . "Have you read Chocolates for Breakfast?" . . . Many people still struggling with Les Mis and Pepita . . . "Raunchy" . . . Lots of surprise birthday parties given . . . Suzanne Warfield, our "Sister Suzie" . . . "I'm a Jeffersonian; what are you?" . . . We're getting up in the world:—two term papers to do this year . . . "Has anybody lost fifteen cents recently?" . . . "Come on, R.B. Squires!!" . . . Juniors and basketball team seem to belong together . . . Rings, at last!! . . . We'll never get our skit for Fun Nite done on time . . . Great Expectations of Junior-Senior Weekend . . . Please bring those report cards . . . SAT's, oh no!! . . . Oh, those college men!! . . . High school boys are still pretty nice, though!!

The two Judys show contrasting emotions over a broken fingernail as Mary and Susan look on.

Allan, Linda and Karen find their pictures amusing.

Two Junior members of the Sextet laugh it up before going on stage.

Sophomore Class Officers—Carolyn, treasurer; Garland, vice-president; Jane, secretary; and Marjorie, president — are obviously ready for a lot of work.

Sophomores

We're actually sophomores! . . . "How about some tennis before lunch?" . . . Madame Jenks overseeing all . . . "Oh, boy! It's Friday again!" . . . "See you Saturday—in 3 no-check study hall!" . . . Flu and colds really made our classrooms look bare for awhile . . . The Freshman-Sophomore party threw the freshmen into a tizzy, much to our delight . . . Lucky Lynne—our great cheerleader and our nine members on squad this year . . . Keep up the good work, girls . . . About our studies—W-E-L-L . . . "An A on a French Test? How!' . . . "Are you sure I have Bible today?" . . . "But Miss Minster, couldn't we have used the other one?" . . . Mrs. Van Sant patiently explaining that term papers must be 1,000 words long . . . Learn that Spanish vocab . . . "Now, if LA=LB, does LC=LD?" . . . "Surprise! I've finished my homework!" . . . Homework and radio just don't mix . . . As for sports—some greens, some golds . . . "You got a check?" . . . Not another crew neck? . . . A crew neck sweater, bermudas, and knee socks—just the thing for a football game . . . Episcopal or St. Stephen's? . . . "Boarders, are those really your own clothes?" . . . What about that letter? Who's it from? . . . "Just got my learners. Watch out!" . . . Eee! It's Ricky Nelson—my one and only love . . . Um-m-m boy! And how we love that snack . . . Only two more years—not much longer . . . Basketball squad finds plenty of sophomore representation . . . Like every class, we're in the Fun Nite rush . . . Many a promising actress . . . Linda Long becomes only sophomore in Sextet.

Joanie gets a hotfoot at the hands of unmerciful sophomores.

Randa looks jubilant over the prospect of the coming snack.

Sophomores prove to unbelieving freshman how delicious cold noodles can be!

"The Gang"

Busy class officers—Karen, secretary; Ingrid, treasurer; Lexie, vice-president; and Joanie, president—stop to pose for us.

"Why, Mr. Ambler, I didn't know you could jitterbug!"

Freshman

Freshmen at last . . . Don't know how we made it! . . . After Freshman-Sophomore Party—almost wish we hadn't . . . We displayed unusual ability to recite verse from a kneeling position to "Almighty Sophomores" . . . Later whom we made "Honorary Freshmen" . . . "Why did I ever take history?" . . . "But General Jackson—2x + x can't equal 3x!" . . . And those class meetings—Who ever heard of Parliamentary procedure? . . . "What? You mean these grades go on our record for college!" . . . Our dance was a great success—we even made money on it! . . . Our class is a regular circus—we keep flipping over boys . . . Our little acknowledged group of professional study-hall skippers—a diversified and versatile group . . . "Would you spell that please, Miss Norris?" . . . "But, Mme. Jenks, that vocabulary was for tomorrow!" . . . Miss Minster; "Don't you think it is a little warm in here, girls?" (thermometer—35°) . . . Why, oh, why does Mrs. Fuller like literature??? . . . At last Miss Poarch is Miss "Bootie" . . . Our class has a knack for getting off the subject, eh! Miss Cline? . . .

Early morning finds the Freshmen busy studying and gabbing.

The president gets a lathering.

Tired Freshmen take a breather while they contemplate on what to do to next year's Freshmen.

Hamming it up!!

Class officers pause from their duties—Randy, president; Barry, vice-president; Betty, secretary; and (another) Betty, treasurer.

Jitterbugging eighth graders go to town.

Eighth Grade

Miss Holmes, our class sponsor, trying to keep us quiet . . . Why doesn't that eighth grader hold the door? . . . Studying at snack for that Bible test . . . "This is a Student Council Study Hall" . . . General Jackson, I thought the test was tomorrow . . . You went to the Dance? . . . That F in English didn't help my grade any . . . We were supposed to be first for lunch today . . . "Does anyone have my French book?" . . . Next year I don't think we will feel quite so inferior, but we have to get through this one first . . . "French and Spanish and I can't even understand English" . . . "What a horrible time to forget my math book!" . . . "Did he call?" . . . "Please stop writing on the board" . . . What's this about Sputnik? . . . Dues tomorrow! . . . "But I have to get my assignment" . . . "I wonder why I can't find any of my books?" . . . Oh, no, not exams . . . Constant frequenters of the Student lounge . . . Feb. 12—the big day of student council initiation . . . "Well, we made it, believe it or not!!" . . . Do you have to see Miss Sinclair at X period, too? . . . Those English subjects!!! . . . Champion droodlers . . . Fat like horses!! . . . Best book losers . . . Bridge fiends in the making . . . Class meetings to the tune of Miss Holmes's gavel . . . Randy, our able president . . . Fun Night rush . . . St. Stephen's, here we come . . . We obey rules!! . . . "My little eighth grade brats!" . . . Parties! Parties! Parties! . . . Desks protected by Miss Holmes!!

A typical snack period shows a group of eighth graders in various activities.

Boarding Department

Gig, why are you draining your cup??

Who says the Boarders don't have their kicks!

Fortune in thumb tacks displayed.

Sad good-byes and best wishes to Lynne who is a wandering Lamb.

Fellowship and fun . . . Gathers Lambs from far and near . . . President Liz conducts all meetings . . . Mrs. Rice-Sturgis, faithful house mother . . . Other brave faculty still trying to convince themselves that they were once his way . . . Late, late gab sessions . . . "I get to study in my room, oh boy!!" . . . Closest to school, but often latest to get there . . . I'll pay if you just wait 'til Friday." . . . Oh, those bulletin boards!! . . . Keep the thumb tack industry on its feet . . . Christmas party, huge success . . . Sign in, sign out time . . . "Is this your sweater or mine I've got on??" . . . Going away party for Lynne Riley who is leaving the fold . . . Get most mail . . . "Whose the letter from?"—"Oh, just my mother." . . . "Which one (boy) this time?" . . . Gay old times had by all . . . "I love Saint Agnes, but I'm going Home!!!!"

Economizing on bed linen by those thrifty (??) boarders.

An early Christmas is had by all.

All had a good time at the Big and Little Sister Party.

Shelby helps serve on Hockey Day.

Familiar Tunes

"One- two- three- kick!"

The fathers tear up the hockey field during their annual game.

Unison —

precision marks our every move . . .

Three Arts Trio express their three arts at Saint Agnes.

Bennington Dancers give us a glimpse of their performance.

On October 12, 1957, the Three Arts Trio—featuring a harpist, narrator, and chalk artist—entertained the student body at Saint Agnes . . . Mr. Custace read a story, Mrs. Custace played appropriate background music, and Miss Maise colorfully illustrated the poems and legends . . . Cherubim and Seraphim —two wandering minstrels—sang for the upper school on February 7, 1958 . . . Seraphim played the lute and told us of the origin of the lyrics of the songs while Cherubim sang the ballads . . . The Bennington Modern Dance Group performed at Saint Agnes in the early part of the year . . . All were amazed by the coordination and rhythm of the fantastic dancers . . . Mr. Bales—well-known for his "Confederacy" and "Union"—performed for a very large audience on March 16, 1958 . . . "Happy Birthday" was sung to the Bowersock twins by the famous artist and his accompanying group.

Mr. Richard Bales, distinguished musician, poses for his picture.

Cherubim and Seraphim prove to Saint Agnes students that the spirit of chivalry did not die in the Middle Ages.

Mr. Trondson announces the next selection to be sung at an outside engagement.

The lower school carol service was loved by all.

Senior Glee Club—Began the year with rigorous tryouts to the tune of "Tammy" . . . The elite—a minority this year instead of a majority . . . Our own performances presented at the Christmas service and Spring Concert . . . New black folders can now be seen decorating almost any coat rack . . . Our own sextet . . . "Sh-h-h-, girls, there are no talking parts in this song!" . . . Strains of "Sleeping Beauty" coming from the cafeteria . . . "Please, girls, an eighth note is barely sung!" . . .Junior Glee Club—Strains of Stephen Foster . . . "Please play our part once more" . . . "But, Mr. Trondson, I can't hold my breath that long!" . . . "Now, girls, I want you to be at the next concert" . . . A year never to be forgotten . . . Senior Chorus—The introduction to the William Tell Opera—our aspiration . . . Always more sopranos than anything else . . . "Let me borrow your nail file, please" . . . "That's the first time I've had an alto section better than a soprano section" . . . "Are we still singing William Tell?" . . . "Why don't you stop talking back there," . . . "Finlandia" . . . "The Sidewalks of New York" . . . Junior Chorus—"Suzanne" . . . "Annie Laurie" . . . "What do you find so terribly amusing about this? This is one of the finest poems ever to come out of the English language" . . . "Mr. Trondson, what page are we on?" . . . "Four counts on 'sleeps'" . . . "That's good, altos—Altos, you're not sticking with your Charlie" . . . "The Little Brown Church In The Vale" . . . "Oh Those Golden Slippers" . . . "You don't have time for lunch there at all, you see."

The lower school rehearses for the carol service.

Sue catches up on her homework while proctoring an eighth grade study hall.

If the juniors ever get settled, we can get started!

Student Council starts off the year with a jolly party for the newcomers.

Look at those officers grin!!

"Now, Mary, it couldn't be that bad!!"

Student Council

"Getting to know you" Board—a big hit . . . A big and little sister party started off the year . . . New council members sworn in . . . Good-looking new book covers sold, both Green and Gold . . . Tea for the parents of new girls . . . "Who hasn't paid her dues yet?" . . . Usual projects—clean-up week and apple polish day, more fun and more successful than ever . . . Crowded no-check study hall Saturday morning . . . Campaign to keep every student informed about Council activities.

Student Council, always trying to make money on its many projects.

"Ooh, that's me!!"

New students and old enjoy leisure—an almost unheard of commodity around S.A.S.—in the Student Lounge.

Obviously Santa has come to S.A.S.

Barbara leads the Guild through a busy year . . . Clanking coke bottles, chattering girls—the "Get Together Party" on the first day of school . . . Hectic Guild body meetings . . . Executive heads use chapel service to explain Guild's goals for 1957-58 . . . Altar always found prim and proper . . . "Did anyone bring her welfare money?"—familiar chant of the harried collectors . . . Excellent work done by Mary-Pat on the Thanksgiving food drive—"canned chickens, anyone?" . . . Christmas toy-drive . . . The famed Hospital commitee . . . Five great conferences —Roslyn, Northfield, Shrinemont, Natural Bridge, and Washington Independent Schools . . . Bo's frantic pleas—"Would last month's choir PLEASE bring back clean cottas!!" . . . Special chapel services on Holy days . . . Fun Nite in all its glory . . . Guild puts harassed classes to the test as they vie for the night's honors . . . A get well card for every Lamb . . . The "poster a week" on their own bulletin board—"Wise men talk of ideas—" and all those other helpful sayings . . . Lively discussion groups—"But why?" . . . A successful year—rewarding to all its participants.

Saint Agnes Lambs learn the facts about cancer.

Molly, Karen, and Debbie demonstrate the finer instincts of S.A.S. girls by putting away their cottas.

Long rehearsal for "Ladies in Retirement."

The dancing elf—Lynne Androus.

This is a play practice.

Lina leads the dramats through two plays and a successful year . . . "Ladies in Retirement" in December brought many hectic rehearsals and last minute props . . . Dress rehearsal climaxed by history test the next morning . . . Thanks to Miss Bootie's athletic class—the chairs were set up for the play . . . Tables fell apart and murder was the order of the day . . . Cast party at Singletons'—gab, smoke and cokes . . . Lynne Androus headed annual Christmas play . . . Mixed-up Santa Claus record—"Wha' happened?" . . . Oh! Those crazy reindeer!!! . . . Climax by unusual can-can . . . Lina—"Now come on you all, we've got to get behind it" . . . Alice—"Please bring your dues, we need the money!" . . . Mrs. Todd, ever faithful and patient sponsor—"Now, girls!" . . . "Don't mumble your words and speak louder!" . . . Unusual chapel service . . . Spring production—"Ring Around the Moon" . . . Tryouts, tryouts and more tryouts . . . "Where are we going to get the boys?" . . . But out of confusion—a hit! . . . What more could one ask for in one year????

Merry making after play making.

A good time—make-up and all.

La Cercle Française

Eagerly anticipated meetings on the second Tuesday of each month . . . Variety is the spice of the French Club . . . Tasty cookies enliven our meetings along with an occasional "jeu de bridge" . . . Led through a successful year by Karen, Jane and Susan . . . Highlights of the year: At the first meeting of the school year we were delighted to have as our guest-speaker Mme. Jenks who gave us an enlightening discourse on teenagers in France . . . Following this "résumé" Mlle. Michalot gave us an impromptu "parler" which increased our knowledge of France . . . At our Christmas meeting Madame Strong talked to us on the French customs adding to the pleasure . . . Two of our highlights of the year: recordings of NATO conferences in various languages . . . Interesting slides of many famous sights taken in Canada . . . A year filled with new interest and enthusiasm.

Circulo de Espanol

"El idioma une los pueblos'—our motto . . . Something new has been added this year—A Spanish cup for the most deserving girl . . . Monthly meetings held on the second Tuesday of each month . . . Initiation turned out to be fun for eveyrone, especially the new members . . . Wonderful meetings with equally wonderful refreshments—"Whoops, there goes my diet!" . . . Christmas party proved to be a treat for all present . . . Carols in Spanish at the Christmas Service . . . During our meetings those pinatas have a knack for creating chaos, but having a good time . . . No one took a siesta during our big fiesta—Pan American Day . . . It wasn't all play, however, we did have to study for the Virginia State Language Tournament . . . Exams or term papers—take your pick . . . All the students learned a lot . . . Sally, our very able president, helped make this an interesting year . . . The other officers are Marcia Tappaan, Linda Cuningham, Alice Schmidt, and Carol Noel . . . Members of the Spanish Honor Society and Spanish-taking Seniors had a real blast when they went to see a movie starring Cantanflas, and to dinner in Washington . . . Our willing sponsors, Senora Kenk and Senora Ortiz . . . Frequent requests for dues . . . Some artistically beautiful slides of Mexico for our February meeting . . . All these resulted in a wonderful and most rewarding year.

First row: Senora Kenk, faculty advisor; Marcia Tappaan, treasurer; Linda Cunningham, secretary; Sally Engh, president; Alice Schmidt, vice-president; Carol Noel, treasurer; Senora Ortiz, *faculty advisor. Literary Society

More members than ever—thirty! . . . A constitution making us legal . . . Followed one main train of thought the whole year—Classicism, in spite of pleas for a discussion on Thomas Wolfe . . . Meetings with food and coffee . . . Mrs. Fuller—tries to make us literary . . . "We're going to fine you if you don't bring your dues" . . . "Please hand in your compositions"—one of Liz's constant pleas in chapel . . . Meetings full of hard work especially on Mrs. Fuller's part . . . Very able officers—Joan, president; Lynn, vice-president; and Sally, secretary-treasurer . . . Our many interesting talks by outside speakers were enjoyed by all . . . Reports on books by members . . . We're always being cut out of Tuesday meetings by holidays . . . A very successful year with many constructive ideas for our smaller club next year.

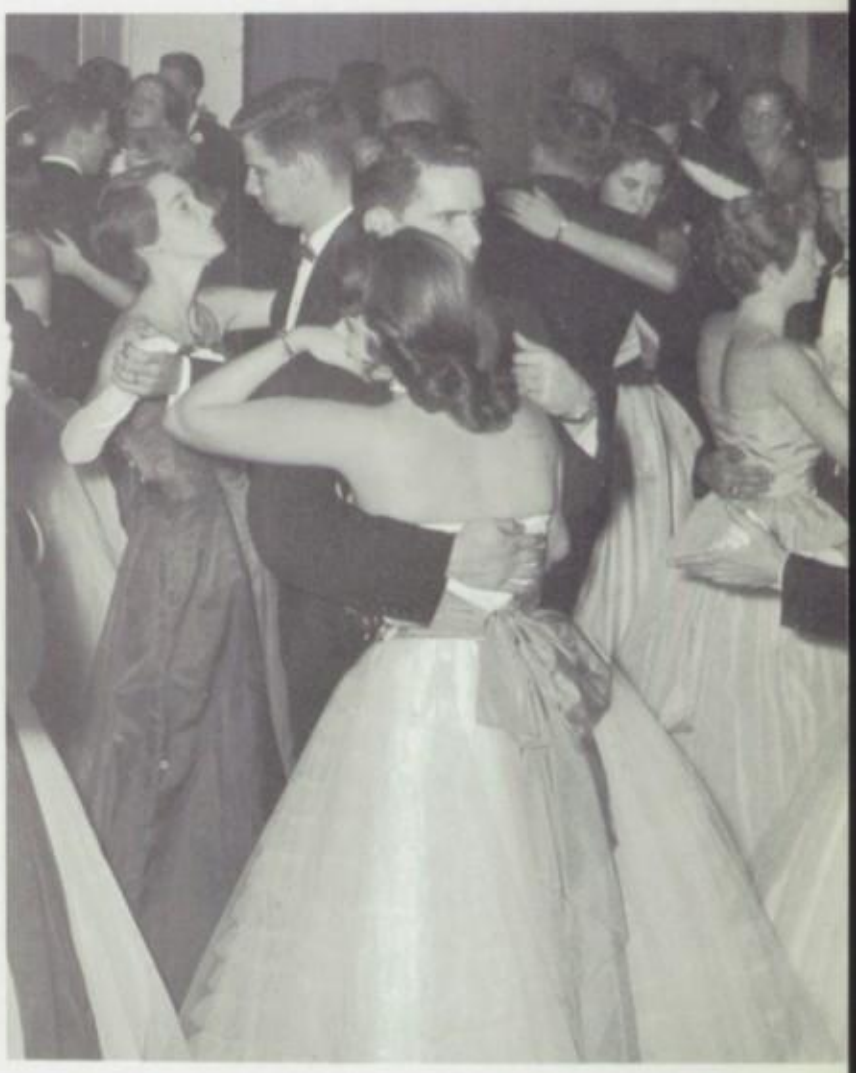
Holiday Club

Crystal chandeliers, soft music, rustling formals and nippy weather = Holiday Club atmosphere . . . Lack of parking places and length of receiving line made Lambs more impatient than usual . . . Unrehearsed but successful rendition of "White Christmas" by the sextet . . . Aching feet felt by many but there was at least one, maybe two breakfasts to attend afterward . . . Great time had by all—especially Mary!



Contrasting moods.

And our Lamb's Tail light focuses on a pensive—contented—sleepy—smiley—surprised—group dominated by Lambs and St. Stephenites.

Linda, Becky and Charlie smile for the birdie.

Girl Scouts

Our troop—the first one organized in Alexandria . . . Members from the sixth and seventh grades . . . Big cookie sale with four different kinds of cookies . . . Roller skating at the arena is always enjoyed by all . . . Oh! Those bruises and sores the next day! . . . Miss Stebbie — long experienced and wonderful leader . . . A very profitable calendar sale . . . Impressive traditional Candlelight Service highlighted the Christmas school celebration . . . Solos by the talented Holly Buckner, Kathy Kohmann, and Libby Shackleford . . . A year concentrated on badge work—tree badges are earned in the fall by observing many different types and shapes of leaves . . . Hard earned Second and First class awards . . . And merit badges too . . . Stockings made for the Ann Lee Memorial Home . . . Our Saint Agnes Day gift—money to transplant the pink and white dogwood trees . . . The officers are: Carol Simon, president; Marion MacRae, vice-president; Virginia Moore, secretary; and Marilyn McCormick, treasurer . . . Cookouts and picnics are always lots of fun, but bad weather restricted many of our outdoor activities this year . . . Mr. Maley from the Austrian Embassy was our most important feature for international month . . . Chapel Service during Girl Scout week . . . Interesting trip to the Botanical Gardens . . . Our final program consisted of working for the music badge—old American folksongs were sung, and many talented pianists performed . . . A Court of Awards ended a very rewarding year . . . Brownie troops for the first, second and third graders are also numerous . . . Ambition—to become Girl Scouts some day . . . Much work on crafts . . . Helped the Girl Scouts make their cookie and calendar sales successful . . . Many thanks to our wonderful leaders who gave us so much of their time . . . Christmas caroling at the Boarding Department was enjoyed by all the Brownies and boarders . . . A year never to be forgotten by the Girl Scouts and Brownies.

Athletic Association

Another successful year due to our President . . . Big plans for constitution, boosters club, and maybe a trophy . . . Posters promoting attendance to games —both S. A. S. and S. S. S. . . . Successful campaign to clean up those locker rooms . . . No nameless tennis shoes around school . . . All is accomplished with the help of Miss Bootie's stabilizing hand . . . Money making project on play day . . . Cokes, cookies, doughnuts— . . . Excitement of the games . . . Who will win, greens or golds? . . . The fight for the banner . . . Our last big fling—the banquet . . . Awards, good food, and fun for both hockey and basketball squads, cheerleaders, scorers, timers, and managers . . . A wonderful job done by all.

Congratulations Judy! You're captain!

Look what came out of the Green Gremlin!

Ann and Suzanne, Green captains, smile as Miss Bootie shows her new socks.

The hockey season got underway with Annandale Oct. 31 . . . Anne Manson tried to divebomb the "swamp" . . . We think our field is bad? . . . Goalie cages decorated with respective colors . . . Miniature Green and Gold hockey sticks for all . . . Cathy Marshall and Nancy Boxley teamed up for our only goal . . . Holton was deposed by the Greens, while the Golds lost by a goal in the last seconds . . . Heartbreaking, isn't it? . . . Friends' second team met ours in a deadlock tie, and neither could quite get that little ol' ball between the posts . . . The first team battled bravely but couldn't quite make it . . . The Playday at Stoneridge enjoyed by all . . . Four games played—none lost and three tied . . . Annakay —outstanding player . . . Hockey Day brought excitement and spirit from all corners . . . With many proud parents looking on the Little Teams fought it out furiously . . . Bruce Earman's goal roasted the Golds even though the weather was chilly . . . The Middle Greens made a clean sweep even though the Golds showed great fight . . . You just can't stop those Bowersocks . . . Everyone partook of lunch and returned for the skits . . . The Golds' theme was the good ol' rocket age . . . The Greens went "Around the World in Eighty Days" . . . The fathers showed us the way hockey really ought to be played . . . Heaven help Miss Bootie if we ever look like that . . . Miss McBride received Green and Gold ear muffs . . . Miss Bootie, a silver ashtray and Green and Gold striped knee socks . . . The hardest of all battles was fought between the squads . . . Equality prevailed . . . At 20 below St. Agnes was still on the field . . . Frozen and breathing hard, the Greens couldn't quite make it . . . Especially with Georgetown's stickwork . . . The Golds came through with a victory despite the cold . . . The eighth and ninth grades lost all four games in spite of valiant tries . . . Betty Murphy scored the only goal . . . Season closed with successes and defeats, but hard work and playing by all . . . Miss Bootie, we tried!

Bench-warmer—an unusual position for Pat.

Expressing your feelings?

Season opened at St. Margaret's with a split decision —1st team lost 40-45, 2nd team won 34-30 . . . Anne Manson paced both teams with 23 points . . . Madeira proved victorious over the Greens and the Golds . . . Linda Cunningham put in 9 points for the Golds . . . Anne Manson—12 points for the Greens . . . First team overpowered Friends—54-40 . . . Anne Manson and Kay Burney each chipped in with 18 points . . . Second team didn't quite make it and Friends was victorious—34-28 . . . Golds again pulled out in front and beat National Cathedral . . . Greens weren't quite so fortunate . . . At Independent Schools Basketball Playday, first team beat Madeira, tied Holten, lost a close one to Friends, was beaten by Cathedral . . . Games with Holton were close and exciting . . . Buffy Wilson led 2nd team with 8 points . . . Both teams lost, however, 2nd—17-19; 1st—28-31 . . . The eighth grade triumphed over Friends in both games—26-11, 30-9 . . . Donna Callar put in 18 points for the 1st team, Joanna Schroeder—8 for the second to take high-scoring honors . . . Eighth grade Greens downed Potomac with Peggy Scott scoring 10 . . . Christine Simienski was high with 10 for the Golds in their victory . . . Ninth grade Greens beat Potomac—41-30 with Carol Bowersock's 19 points to help . . . Golds lost a close one—16-24 . . . Dorothy Bellinger was high with 6 points . . . Ninth grade first team lost to Friends– 19-29 . . . Second team came out ahead—22-10 . . . Basketball Playday brought usual excitement and spirit from all . . . Miss Bootie wore her new Green and Gold socks . . . Coached both teams impartially, as usual . . . Little Greens defeated Little Golds by close score of 28-21 . . . Patty Sheperdson led the Greens with 15 points . . . Marion MacRae paced Golds with 8 . . . Middle Golds beat Greens—32-20—one of the biggest upsets of the year . . . Dorothy Bellinger hit for 12 . . . Christine Simienski hit 9 . . . Bowersock twins led the Greens with 20 . . . Guards of both teams fought hard all the way . . . Squad games were close and exciting to the end—more spirit than St. Agnes has ever had . . . Greens—34, Golds—31 . . . Linda Peery was high for the Greens with 13 . . . Judy Kurtz, Liz Conley, and Barbara kept Green forwards on their toes . . . Suzie Warfield, Jackie Lamond, Mary Schneider, and Ellen Tabb held their own against Gold forwards . . . Gig Runner made a magnificent long shot . . . Zoë Lanyon and Kay Burney backed up Linda Cunningham . . . Dee McGowan replaced Anne Manson in late first half and in second when she sprained her ankle . . . Good sportsmanship and hard play were extremely prominent in all three games.

"We won the game!!"

Make that point! ! !

An exhausted Gold team talks over next quarter's tactics.

Coda —

draws us toward the closing chords . . .

"Who's tired now? !?"

All goes well among the Sophomores at their dance in the Juniors' honor.

Junior-Sophomore Dance

Held in honor of the juniors . . . Theme of the dance—"Spring has Sprung"—carried into every aspect of the evening—decorations, music, and refreshments . . . Springlike atmosphere inside in contrast to the snow outside . . . Many sprays of forsythia in artistic arrangements . . . Unique refreshments—chocolate covered grasshoppers and caterpillars . . . "What's this in my candy that crunches? An Ant?? UGH!" . . . Dancers serenaded by a bird in a gilded cage and by a hi-fi set with records . . . Dance made possible by the hard work of Mr. A. T. Androus, a sophomore father, Mr. Ballard, and the members of the sophomore class . . . Evening appreciated by all members of both classes, but especially by the free-loading juniors.

Fun Night

A time of fun and surprise . . . A mad clamor of feet backstage—"Has the curtain gone up yet?" . . . Eighth grade led with sobbing rendition of "The Mortgage on the School" . . . The faculty received shocks upon seeing their freshmen "doubles" in "Scream for a Day" . . . Guild filled the ever-empty gastric cavities with goodies . . . Watchbird report: A certain lamb selling cakes got an elbowfull of icing . . . Sophomores rendered "Winnie the Pooh"—tree-houses and clocks walked around the stage—Unusual??! . . . Juniors thrilled all with a British melodrama—pantaloons and everything . . . "Serious" seniors broadcasted latest news, weather and hits to the S. A. S. "cool cats" . . . "Patt's rats" . . . Between scenes—10 zillion verses of "You Can't Get to Heaven" . . . Chinese auction by Mr. Howard . . . Lea Pickett won a cake for the boarders . . . Karen Zimmerman and the freshmen won the awards—Congratulations.

8th grade shows their faculty take-offs in their skit for Fun Nite.

Ann Hines models the latest (??) in the Freshman skit, a take-off on Queen for a Day.

Emily Squires plays a suffragette of the English upper class in the Junior's English murder mystery.

Kita Kelly struts and looks pretty as other models await their entrances.

Marilie Fifer reads the number chosen by an underclassman.

Marilie and Cary discuss the fashion show with three of the models, Shelby, Debbie and Jane.

Fashion Show

April 11th—the big day . . . Jelleff's presented its lovely fashions . . . Models from kindergarten to the Senior class, plus some professionals . . . Everything from bathing suits to evening dresses . . . "Has anyone seen my other earring?" . . . Congratulations, models—nobody managed to fall off the runway . . . All kinds of door prizes . . . Punch and cookies . . . Faculty, guests, seniors, and models in the lounge; other students in the cafeteria.

Ring Around the Moon

Two and a half months of hard practice—even on weekends . . . Mad dashes for cokes . . . Badminton games between scenes . . . Frantic search for a wheelchair . . . The big night finally came and what a success! . . . Presentation of flowers to Mrs. Todd . . . Climaxed by the cast party at Lee Howard's and the clean up party on Sunday.

Is he really worth all that fighting girls?

Lynne and Margie rehearse their lines.

The gym took the shape of a huge carousel.

Some of the couples enjoy one of the slower numbers by Devron.

Student Council Dance

Reception line greeted you at the door . . . Dancing to Devron . . . Cup cakes and punch which were long remembered afterwards . . . The gym turned into a huge "Carousel" of floating crepe paper . . . Beautiful dresses and shining faces were the order of the evening . . . Tried, hard working Council members joined the throng . . . The Sextet sang four of their best . . . Parties before and after added to the excitement . . . The Seniors had their traditional bubble machine . . . Everyone was—"In the mood" . . . The unforgettable polka when our feet became entangled in crepe paper . . . The picking of the door prize by Eleanor and Charles . . . The prize was won by Patt and Buck—coincidental? . . . The Seniors made good use of the faculty room.

Athletic Banquet

How do you get to the Lazy Susan Inn, anyone? . . . A smokefilled porch with lots of hungry girls . . . Crossed hockey sticks and basketball emblems given to the new members of squads . . . Toasts proposed to everyone but Skippy . . . "Rootie, tootie, our Miss Bootie!" . . . "Horrors, horrors, our Miss Norris!" . . . Sue Peery's toast to the "unsung heroes" . . . Juniors and sophomores cheered and sang "While You're Away" . . . Word of Miss Bootie's departure leaked out—Fairfax High is getting a great prize . . . "Marilie! Put that camera down this instant!" . . . "Let's get some place closer to Alexandria next time!" . . . Linda Peery almost left out by Anne Manson . . . "Hail, St. Agnes" ended the festivities as the new squad members clutched their emblems in their grubby paws.

The head table plus the captains, co-captains and Athletic Association officers beam smiles of enjoyment.

One table sits eagerly waiting to come up and receive their emblems.

A few tired but always hungry Juniors and Seniors pose during dinner.

"Well, I'll be!"

The never ceasing bridge fans begin immediately.

Junior-Senior Day

Away to the Engh's farm, convertibles and all . . . The bridge games started as soon as all arrived . . . Gab and gossip sessions . . . "Well, Cathy, not everyone can fall in while pushing a boat off." . . . Some attempted horseback riding . . . Swimming for the brave . . . After a luscious lunch of turkey and all the trimmings, the Seniors, contented only when they are full, sat down to enjoy the Juniors' entertainment—a skit of a typical day and typical Seniors . . . Tired S.I.P.A. representatives finally arrived . . . A hayride with you know who leading "Hail, St. Agnes" . . . As the day progressed, suspense mounted . . . Most everyone had had a sunburn which was followed by pealing . . . Finally it was time to go—with more added memories.

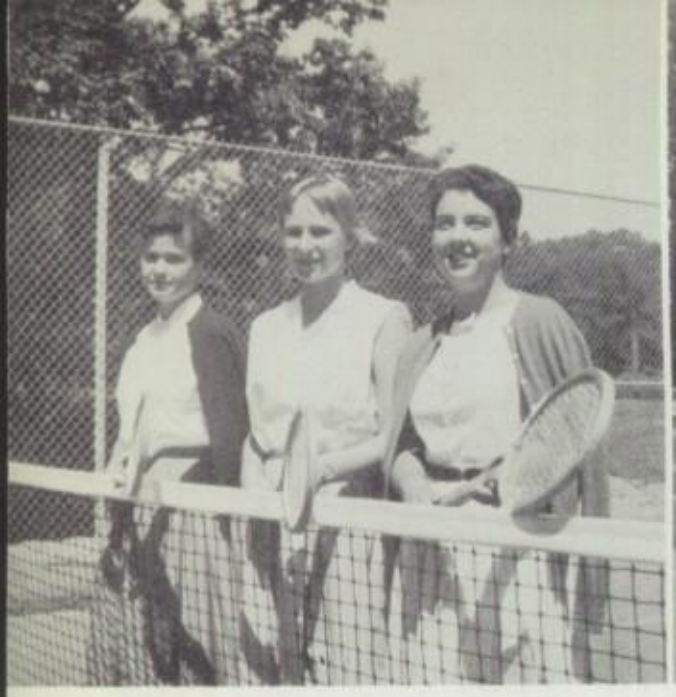
Senior Day

Off for the day to Westmoreland Beach . . . The Seniors, our faithful homeroom teacher, Mrs. Van Sant, and what day would not be complete without Miss McBride? . . . Those Bermudas, at school, the envy of every underclassman . . . A cavalcade of beeping horns and happy students—We didn't miss any stops on the way . . . Our enthusiasm was barely dampened by the weather—bridge sessions, many radios, and dance sessions—you name it, we did it! . . . What's the good "word" for the day? "S.F." . . . Forgotten permission slip for swimming . . . All the bath house conveniences . . . Lunch on the beach under blankets—bothered by "flies" and the "salt" was too thick on our food . . . "Pizza, anyone?" . . . Running for the trees when the rain came . . . No tans . . . Some persistent ones were able to grin and bear it . . . A day that came to a close all too soon.

Anyone tired or wet?

"Sue, don't be so bashful!"

"Brother, what a day!" . . .



Tennis winners: Betty Ann Murphy, Gold, singles; Peggy Scott and Beverly Edwards, Greens, doubles.

Christine Simienski, Jill Ridgely, Peggy Mayo, and Bo Knox make up the St. Agnes Riding Team.

Elizabeth Morris Daniel

"Buffy" . . . One of the most dependable . . . Staunch supporter of Student Council . . . A St. Agnes Lamb from way back . . . Has a cheerful and optimistic outlook on life . . . Honor Roll student in spite of the odds against her . . . A willing and thorough worker . . . Dearly beloved by all.

The Reverend J. J. Ambler

This spring our chaplain, Mr. Ambler, celebrated the 30th anniversary of his ordination into the ministry . . . He attends and takes part in most school functions . . . Mr. Ambler enriches our lives with his chapels and those of other ministers he enables us to hear.

Miss Martha B. Sinclair

The Class of 1958 bestows on Miss Sinclair a large token of its appreciation . . . We were the last class that she sponsored . . . All through the years at St. Agnes she filled our requests at the Book Store for us, gave her time unendlessly to Lamb's Tail, and was ever ready to hear about our joys and sorrows,

Finale—

the song is ended

the melody lingers on . . .

Flustered Seniors get organized before baccalaureate.

Kay pins the traditional pin on Judy Liddle while Barbara chats with the recipient of "her" coat, Betsy Davis.

Mr. Ambler posed with our baccalaureate speaker, Mr. Heath.

Baccalaureate

Hurried rushing to get caps and find places . . . "Is this too much jewelry?" . . . "Do I look all right?" . . . Seniors dolled out in their Sunday best . . . "Ooh, that's darling!!" . . . "Now don't get too close to the cross and flags." . . . "Please, stand up straight." . . . At last, they begin to file in . . . All in white except the class of '58 . . . Offertory, "Ye watchers and Ye Holy Ones," sung by the Senior Glee Club . . . The Lord's Prayer by the whole school . . . Ever faithful Mr. Ambler conducted the service . . . Dr. Heath gave the sermon on "The Power of a Woman." . . . This made it easier for the Seniors to face the world . . . Slow procession out . . . Rush to meet families and friends.

Jr.-Sr. Banquet

The Juniors' party for the Seniors . . . Great curiosity concerning the neatly wrapped Lamb's Tails . . . Delicious baked chicken, potatoes, and beans . . . A host of toasts, beginning with Miss McBride, Miss Ross, Mrs. Van Sant, and the class officers . . . Suzanne Warfield and Marcia Tappaan announced as Co-Chairmen of next year's Holiday Club . . . Some old traditions: the awarding of the Pin and the Coat . . . And a new tradition: one earring awarded to Anne Manson, next year's Student Council President, by Sue Peery . . . Anxious waiting to open the Lamb's Tails followed by squeals of delight . . . "Sign my book, please" . . . A mad rush back to school to plant the tree . . . Singing and planting undampened by rain . . . A gay evening for all followed by several yearbook signing parties.

Anne receives her treasured gift from Sue as Marcia and Suzanne, new Holiday Club Co-chairmen, look on.

Before—Lamb's Tail staff wraps yearbooks for the coming banquet.

After—the big moment for opening and signing yearbooks has finally come!

There were numerous award winners on Class Day.

Three of the Seniors, Molly, Barbara and Eleanor, show their delight with their prizes.

Lina Fippin, winner of the Karig Writing Prize, was absent from the picture.

The Class of '58 led in by Eleanor Backus, its president.

The procession continues with Cary Lamond, whose grandfather helped found St. Agnes, smiling happily.

Commencement

The long awaited but sad day finally came . . . The Seniors filled the library and the rest of the upper school was in the cafeteria . . . At 11 o'clock the underclassmen processed into the crowded gym singing "God of Our Fathers" followed by the Seniors and the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" . . . After the invocation the Senior Glee Club's songs "America the Beautiful," and "All Praise to God Eternal" . . . The awarding of diplomas by Miss McBride . . . Special recognition went to Eleanor Backus, the second daughter of an alumna to graduate, to Cary Lamond, whose mother, father and grandfather have been closely connected with St. Agnes, and to Buffy Daniel, who has worked so hard and achieved so much . . . After the long practiced picking up of the roses and sitting down as a group, The Honorable Mr. Boothe gave the address . . . Father of three former St. Agnes girls, he revealed an intimate knowledge of St. Agnes and the Senior class . . . His quotes from Lamb's Tail, Shearings, and overheard conversations—"We are only good friends" . . . "Boy, what we didn't know about those Seniors!" . . . This was followed by a more serious side . . . Miss Ross presented the Flora Kinloch Shackleford Alumnae Memorial to Lee Howard, the Valedictorian . . . The Karig Writing Prize went to Lina Fippin in recognition of her creative writing . . . Miss Nellie Boothe, winner of the Macondray Trophy in 1957 presented the trophy to the girl voted the Best All Round—Sue Peery . . . A Message Of Congratulations

Although First & Citizens National Bank of Alexandria is the oldest national bank in Virginia, founded in 1864, we dedicate ourselves to the future.

Many of you, we are sure, will come to know First & Citizens National Bank personally in the years ahead. We look forward to the pleasure of serving you, as a financial counselor, as a neighbor, and as a fellow citizen. We pledge to serve you well.

Our heartfelt congratulations to each of you.
